THE 1957 PHILOMATH

SHARON WHITTIER Co-Editors THOMAS BRAITHWAITE

FRAMINGHAM HIGH SCHOOL . . . FRAMINGHAM, MASSACHUSETTS

Hi!
I'm Fenwick. I'm inviting you to spend some leisure time browsing through this 1957 Philomath.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As our years at Framingham High School draw to a close, I am impressed by two outstanding characteristics of our class, mainly loyalty and cooperation. These have manifested themselves in all the various spheres of school activity. But they have probably been most tangible in the continued and unflinching support which our class has given to the school's athletic program. Whether the scores reflected victory or not, our class has always given its support by participation, attendance, and encouragement. In every other activity, be it old and tested, or new and yet untried, the seniors have put their shoulders to the wheel and given their fullest measure of effort towards successful achievement.

Living as we do in a community where opportunities for out of school employment and recreation are abundant, I can proudly say that we have never been called upon to join in a project of any merit without our responding with ready enthusiasm. Long hours of preparation, many personal sacrifices, and the joint efforts of various groups have resulted in noteworthy services to both the school and the community. To name some would be but to unfairly neglect others, but at the risk of doing so, I cannot help but mention the heart-warming Christmas projects, the brilliant Junior Prom, and the day in and day out assistance of our marshals.

Since our entrance as sophomores, we have grown in many directions. We have learned from our daily contacts with the faculty something of the superior values; we have acquired an appreciation of the finer ideals; we have captured an understanding of what life will hold for us.

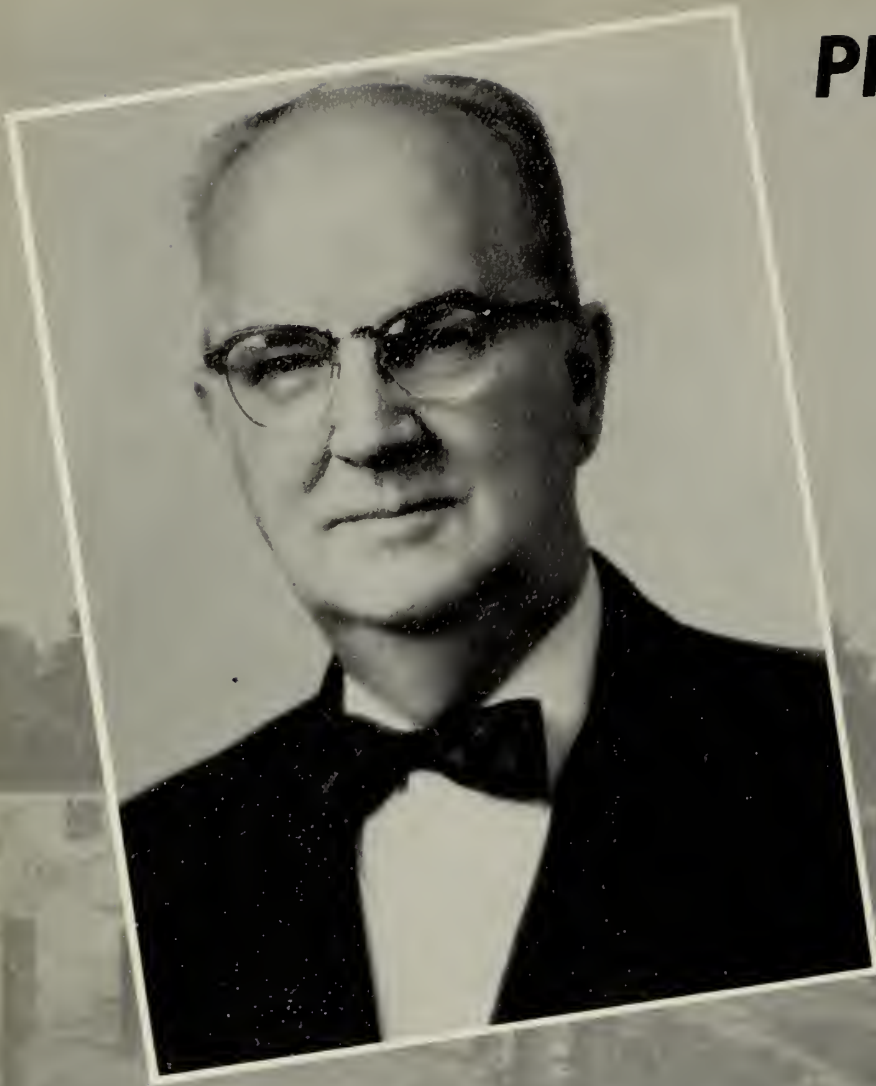

The good counsel afforded us by our principal, Mr. Magoon, and the everwilling assistance and understanding of our class advisor, Miss Kirby, have smoothed our path throughout our years together. To them we are most grateful.

That I am both pleased and proud to have been, for the past two years, the president of a class, which has so well exemplified the finest qualities of school citizenship, goes almost without saying. It would be unfair if I failed to express my sincere thanks to my fellow class officers and to all my classmates who have so willingly and graciously given of their assistance.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Each graduating class makes a definite contribution to the long and enviable history of Framingham High School. The Class of 1957 will be remembered for the excellent quality of that achievement.

Graduation is not an end but rather a beginning—of new experiences, new contacts, new horizons and new goals. It is the sincere hope and conviction of the high school administration and faculty that all members of the class, by example and achievement, will contribute greatly to the adult world of which they are now a most important part. May success in the larger sense and real happiness abide with each member of this class.

May W. Inagoo

OUR EXCHANGE STUDENT

PAUL NILSON

We are happy to have had with us this year Paul Nilson, our Exchange Student from Sweden.

He, in turn, wishes to express his thanks to us for making his year of study at Framingham High School possible. This is Paul's message to all of us.

Now that the drive for the selection of the Summer Student is over, I feel glad to have seen the enthusiasm of so many juniors, for this gives me the feeling that the Exchange Student Program really has caught on here. This, I think, has been made possible mostly by the interest of the student body. Nothing has made me more happy than to see the "Shares of Democracy" posted in the different classrooms. Though the contributions behind these are of great importance to the program, I still think their ultimate value is representing F. H. S. and its will to provide for an exchange student. Every time I see one, it seems to say to me, "Welcome, Paul. The students did this for you, too."

I am much better off now than when I came for I have grown to know so many of you. I want to thank every one of you who have made my years here so pleasant. The football games with their school spirit and the other school activities, showing this same display of—let me call it—fellowship, were important to make me feel at home and one of the crowd. Now I am such a Flyer fan that I cheer more at a basketball game here than I would for my favorite soccer team in Sweden, and that, believe me, really means something. Let's lick Natick next time, friends!

CLASS HISTORY (1957)

September, 1954. At last some 290 new students were ready to take their places in Framingham High School and comprise the class of 1957. Up to this time we had been slips of paper on file in the office, but now we were ready to establish ourselves and see to it that the class of '57 would be remembered forever. How did our first few days go? We quickly grew accustomed to the P. A. system, marshals leaving classes early and rotating periods. But who will forget the troubles we had at lunch periods when the upperclassmen used us as doormats in order to sneak ahead in line, and how many were sent to the boiler room after asking directions to the gym or biology lab?

Then with the Senior-Soph, we were able to get into the social life of the school. During the early weeks, members from our class had shown their ability in athletics. So the future looked bright on the gridiron.

It seemed as if we had just settled into the daily life of F. H. S., when we had our first combat with term exams. Then, soon after Christmas vacation we were able to place some of our classmates on the Student Council, while others began their services with the Student Crier. Several of us showed our talents at the Science Fair and later we helped make the Music Festival a big success. After a week of vigorous campaigning, our first year hit its climax on election day. Mark Dooling was elected president of our junior class with Jimmy Duca chosen as vice president, Sue Pepi served as secretary, and Judy Austin was elected treasurer. School seemed tiring after such a hectic time, but ten weeks of vacation took care of our boredom.

As juniors, we were in the middle—that is, we could impress the new sophomores but the seniors continued to play the part of the big boss and to take credit for everything they could think of. Yet, many of our classmates continued to shine athletically and scholastically. Others showed that they could organize projects efficiently, while our entire class proved that we could work together and carry a job to completion. The biggest and most successful event of the year was our Junior Prom. The "Mardi Gras" was a night never to be forgotten.

The days passed quickly, and soon we had to prepare for our senior year. Mark Dooling and Jimmy Duca were reelected as president and vice president of our class. Margie Keaney was chosen treasurer and Alice Purcell secretary. Donald Prince was elected president of the Student Council; Mike Otenti became head of the Marshal Force; Jana Levine and Paul Wassarman were chosen editors of the Student Crier; Sharon Whittier and Tom Braithwaite took on the responsibilities of the Philomath. Carol Garbarino was selected to lead the majorettes, and Joanne Urban prepared to captain the cheerleaders.

Finally, after ten weeks of fun and relaxation mixed with a little work, we returned to the halls of F. H. S. as seniors. Yes, we were finally seniors, facing our new responsibilities fearlessly and proud to be looked up to for leadership.

The Senior-Soph paved the way for our many accomplishments during this, our final year. Our football team was one of the finest that Framingham could remember. The thrills, the joys, and the sorrows will live with us forever, and our team will be a topic of conversation in the years to come. To show that others thought as much of our team as we did, Dick Natoli, Joe Zichella, and Joe Holtslag were chosen on post-season All-Star squads.

The senior play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," was a huge success and gave many of us a chance to prove our talent for acting. Enthusiasm, extended through the candy sale, was renewed in the Christmas Projects under our direction. These smashed all records as we willingly helped hundreds enjoy a happier holiday.

January saw our basketball team beginning to roll, while March found the Flyers in post-season competition for the third straight year. Our hockey team, sparked by Pete McCann and Dave Anghinetti, not only proved to be one of the best in the league, but also gave Flyer fans new hope in this great winter sport. Bob Burnand led a rising Flyer track team; Steve Ryder sparked a fine baseball squad; Pete Hatfield and Les Bond guided our golf team.

The girls gave more promise of success in sports this year and the cheerleaders and majorettes deserve credit for honors won.

Meanwhile, we were all going through the turmoils of Community Life lectures, College Boards, and applications. Several of our number received high recognition for their scholastic achievements.

Spring was upon us and soon we were swapping pictures, making definite plans for the future, all the while realizing that time was growing short. Our unforgettable Class Night came too quickly after the Student Council Dance.

The last few days passed quickly, and before we knew it, the great day had almost arrived. In three short years we had formed lasting friendships. Now we are looking ahead to what the future holds, for it is June, 1957, and graduation day is just around the corner.

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the Class of 1957, the wittiest, best-looking, and most popular class ever to graduate from this institution of higher learning and being of sound mind, attest to the fact that this document is our official "Last Will and Testament," hereby revoking all former wills and codicils by us made.

As we leave these hallowed halls and crowded corridors of our Alma Mater, it is only fitting and proper to recognize by some small bequest those who will follow in our footsteps and those teachers who have guided us along the "flowery paths of knowledge."

CLASS BEQUESTS

I, Mark Dooling, leave a thesis by Bud Fisher to Dave Bumbeck, knowing that he will further the cause effectively.

I, Mary Merloni, leave both my blushing smile and my ability to talk to any junior who has need of them.

I, Tom Cummings, leave my pass key to the "smoking room" to any member of the class of '58 who will be true to the cause.

I, Jeanne Taft, leave my big brown eyes and long curly eyelashes to any junior girl who thinks she deserves them.

I, Dick Basiner, leave my little Henry J. to Roger Elkins. It can't take a turtle, Rog, but it surely can make a lot of noise.

We, Jana Levine and Paul Wassarman, leave to next year's co-editors our tube of paste which we used so often in sticking our Student Crier together.

I, Carole Webster, leave my quiet, dainty, little way of blasting my morning salutations to the gang, to anyone who would like to receive dirty looks from a certain teacher in 229.

We, Les Bond and Steve Ryder, leave our ability with the French language to any junior.

I, Roberta Roberti, leave my red and white patched-up convertible to any junior girl capable of handling it.

I, Jim Duca, leave my driving ability to anyone who can afford as many accidents as I've had.

I, Paul Galvin, leave to Harold Francis Dupree III a one-way ticket to Toledo.

I, Ann Marie Pasquantonio, leave all my button-downs to Sue Flashman in hopes that she might be honored to get best-dressed with them.

I, Norma Santospago, leave my ability to get along with golf players to any girl who is interested in learning how to play golf.

I, John Anes, leave one belt in the arm to Billy Annesi.

I, Rose Marie Annesi, leave my flirty eyes to any junior girl who can use these as well as I did.

I, Pat Hogan, leave to Florence Merloni two bruised knees, one battered megaphone and half a bottle of watery leg make-up.

I, Ricky Del Prete, leave to Skip Lavalley a battered Oregon State pennant and a book entitled "How to Center," which I have never read.

I, Chuck Fisher, leave a bottle of smelling salts to next year's polio victims.

I, Shirley Meomartino, leave my collection of "51" sweaters to any junior girl who wishes she had that many.

I, Norm Snow, leave to any Marshal a strong body to take the bruises from the doors in front of 229.

I, Ted Burnand, leave my well-knitted magic carpet, which is 88 per cent Hindu, in hopes that some interested junior or sophomore may use it for a trip to India.

I, Carol Garbarino, leave my beat-up baton to the future head majorette of F. H. S. and hope that her patience holds out.

I, Bob Bernard, leave to Chuck Richards a book with blank pages entitled "I Make Up My Own Jokes" with the hope that he will write them instead of telling them.

I, Bob Moore, leave to Ernie Roberge the honor of having a weekly birthday in the hope that next year's seniors may respect the occasions.

I, Robert McMahon, leave to Mr. Salak an "Otto"matic robot to keep the light-up keys in the "Back Room" out of trouble.

I, Pete McCann, leave my "holy" hockey socks, combination hockey stick and golf club, and my everlasting supply of peppermint lifesavers to George Daboul.

To Mr. Summers, we, the Senior boys, leave a new table for the locker room.

To Mr. Kilburn, we leave a shotgun for his study classes

To Miss Goldsmith, we leave a Rock 'n Roll version of "Macbeth" to replace her worn-out set of records.

To Miss Lathrop, we leave a full-time messenger so that nobody will have to leave his or her glorious studies.

To Miss Lyons, we leave a coat with one large pocket to put her Nash in.

To Mr. Lundberg, we leave a flood to go with his "high waters."

To Mr. Keville, we leave a machine gun to clear the halls in the morning.

To Mr. Brooks, we leave a shovel to dig his tunnel through the earth.

To Mr. Edmond, we leave a pair of elevator shoes with a "down button."

In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our name and affixed our seal, this fourth day of March, in the year of Our Lord 1957.

STUDENT

Under the able leadership of Donald Prince, the Student Council completed many successful projects during this school year. The latter part of the summer was devoted to the publishing of the Sophomore Handbook by Dick Natoli and his committee.

School would never be school without books and their required covers. Selling schoolbook covers was another Council undertaking which met with great student response.

Shortly after the usual fall candy sale, which necessitates much effort on the parts of students and faculty, Mr. York, the Student Council sponsor, announced his plans to leave F.H.S. At an informal get-together the group presented Mr. York a farewell gift and at the same meeting greeted Mr. Bayes as the new faculty advisor. Under his leadership the Football Dance to honor a very deserving team was held and proved to be one of the best attended in the school's history.

With the Christmas season just around the proverbial corner, most students gladly donated can goods and clothing for the needy of the town and elsewhere. The tremendous success of the drive was indeed a measure of teen-age generosity and cooperation.

And so, the year 1957, the year of our graduation, arrived and all awaited more plans and further decisions by the Student Council. The Spring Dance, another of the many projects materialized into a reality that certainly spelled success.

Traditionally, all the affairs sponsored by the Student Council have been the best for those concerned, the student body of Framingham High School.

This year, as in the past, the STUDENT CRIER staff is indebted to Miss March for her patience and valuable advice, without which our paper could not have flourished. The paper covers all phases of the school year, each issue headlining the current activity, whether it be the senior play, the science fair, or Christmas projects, up until graduation. In every issue such columns as Sunnyside, Meet the Faculty, Lowdown or Player of the Week were featured along with the current news. Through hard work on the part of many of our students, the STUDENT CRIER friendly place. The editors are grateful to a most

MARSHALS

Senior Marshals

The Marshals do their best to solve many school problems. It is sometimes difficult to keep students moving in the corridors between classes. For this, as well as other reasons, F. H. S. really appreciates the services rendered by this highly respected group.

FOOTBALL DANCE

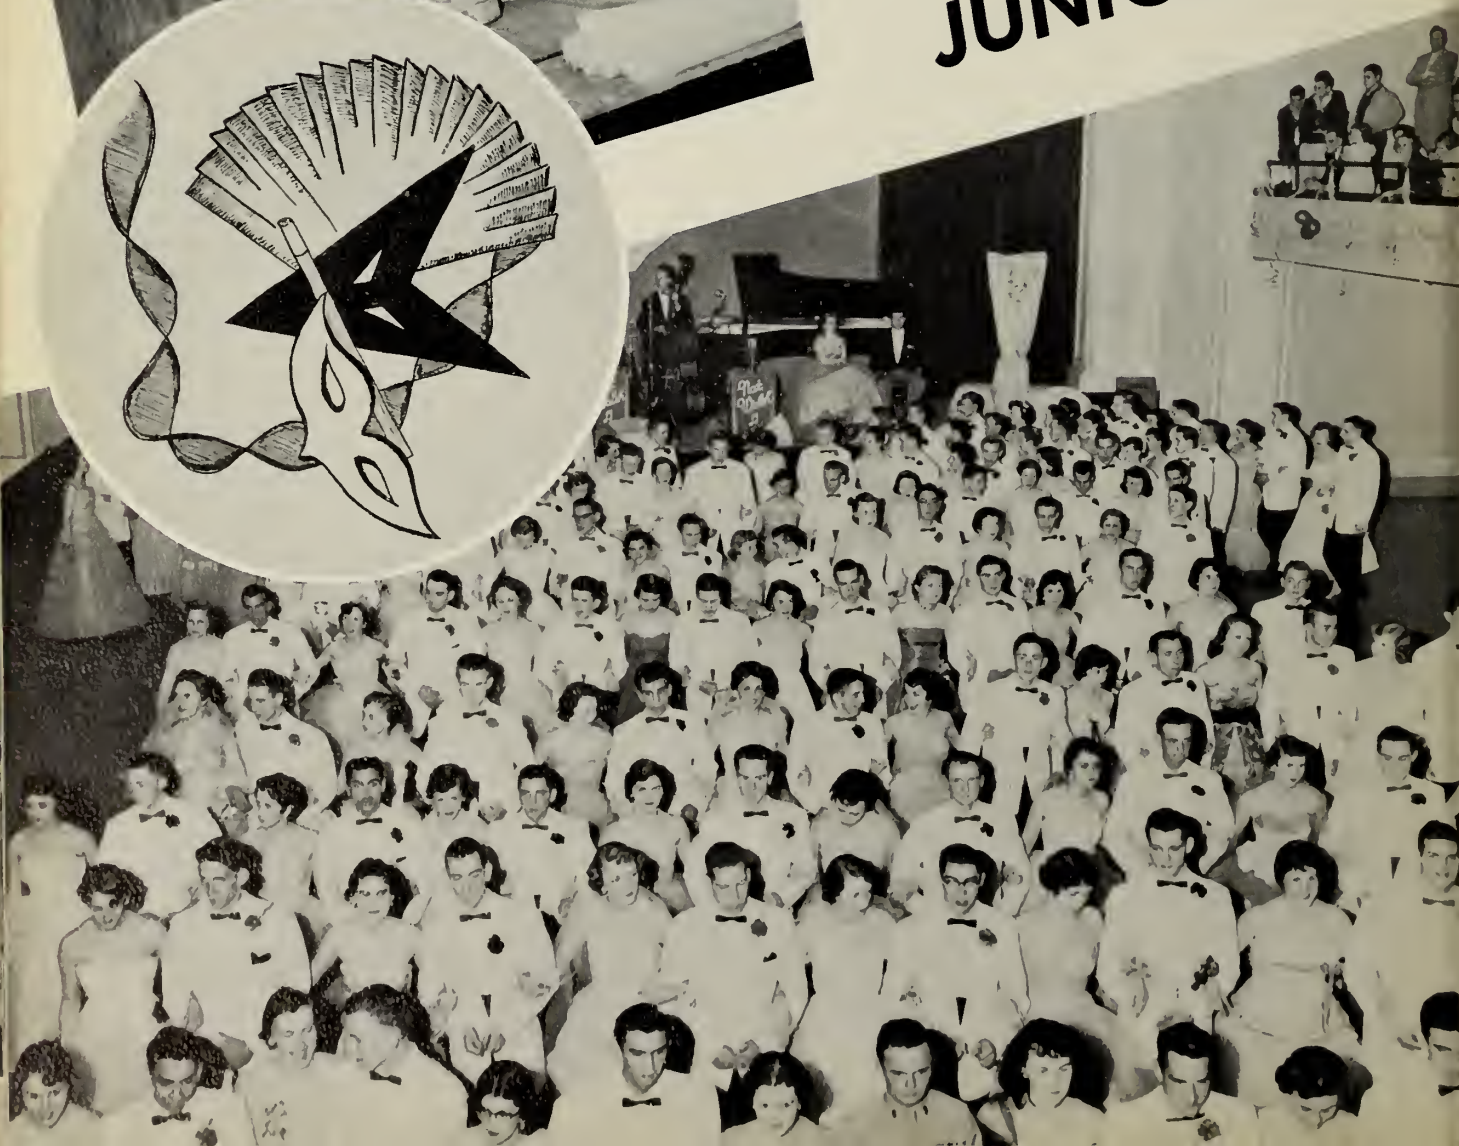

A most successful football season was climaxed by the second dance of the year, the Football Dance. Angelo Urbani's Band provided the excellent music which was enjoyed by those in attendance. During the intermission the floor was cleared so that the cheerleaders and the majorettes might entertain the group with their singing. Honestly both were terrific!

Everyone grew tense when the time came for the naming of next year's co-captains, who proved to be Pete Sullivan and Blake Dawson. During the announcement a large paper football that was mysteriously opened and showered the co-captains with its contents, confetti and balloons. Everyone seemed delighted with the choices, especially Sully and Blake.

The "Mardi Gras" was a different and a very effective theme of the 1956 Junior Prom held on May 11 at Nevins Hall. Clusters of balloons and blue and gold streamers decorated the edge of the balcony and the poles. Masks, one blue and the other black, were hanging against the stage backdrop, while large white fans were used as the facing for the front of the stage.

JUNIOR

Nat Walsh's eight-piece orchestra provided the music for this gala affair. The elimination dances were fun and served as a means of selecting the Prom Queen and her ladies-in-waiting. The crowning of the Queen, Mary Padula, and her two princesses, Carole Garbarino and Mary Ann Weddleton, brought a perfect evening to a close.

PROM

The Music Department under the direction of Mr. Murray and Miss Conway has a very busy schedule. The Band is an essential contributor to the school assemblies. It is featured at all the football games, local as well as out of town clashes. On two different occasions music has been provided for General Motors.

The Orchestra is responsible for the music rendered at the annual Senior Play. Its members also take part in the Music Festival.

Christmas activities include a special Brass Choir and the selected A Cappella Choir of approximately forty-five voices. Programs are prepared for the high school, the Framingham Union Hospital, the different women's clubs, and for the last three years the local Kiwanis Club.

The All-State Concert takes place in the early spring. Worthy music students are selected to participate in the All-State Chorus, the All-State Band, and the All-State Orchestra.

The annual Music Festival is generally held in May. The participating groups include the combined Girls' Glee Clubs, the Boys' Glee Clubs, the Band, the Orchestra and the A Cappella Choir, as well as some carefully trained soloists.

The Cheerleaders and the Majorettes contribute much to the spirit of our school. The cute and clever coeds have proved to be a tremendous success—the eye appeal is a big hit with the spectators and the ear appeal is a big boost for the different teams.

FOOTBALL

The Flyers ran away with a 32-0 victory in the first game with Walpole. Pete Sullivan scored the first touchdown on a pass from quarterback, Fred Drake. Dick Natoli, Paul Levandosky and Joe Zichella exhibited great running to make this an easy win.

September 29 found the Flyers in good condition. Joe Zichella scored two touchdowns, one a 90-yard jaunt, and the other a 12-yard tally. Natoli scored the third on a pass from Drake. Great blocking by Joe Holtslag, Bob Salvi, and Tom Maloney provided the punch needed to give the backs the openings.

SEASON 1956

Mike Otenti showed his passing skill in the Norwood tilt by hitting Natoli for a touchdown early in the game. Zichella scored two and Levandosky one. Fran Lynch, our place-kicking expert, added the points for a 27-6 victory.

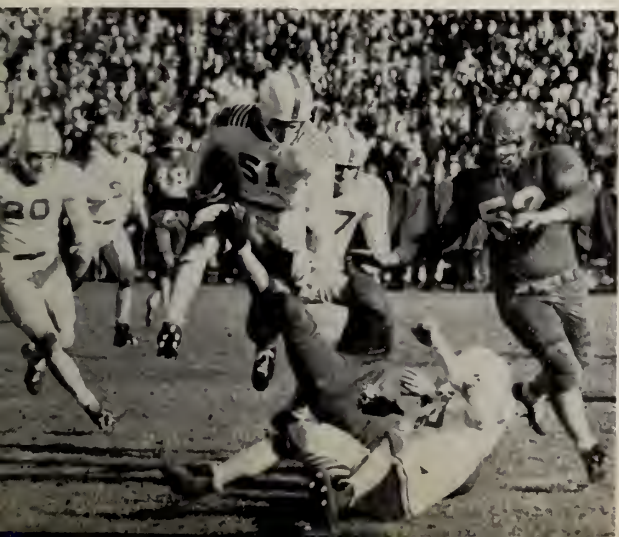

On October 12, spearheaded by Levandosky, the team's powerful fullback, Framingham romped over Dedham 33-6. Levy scored two; Zichella, one, and Natoli, one. The last T.D. was a pass to our big end and great bunter, Chuck Richards.

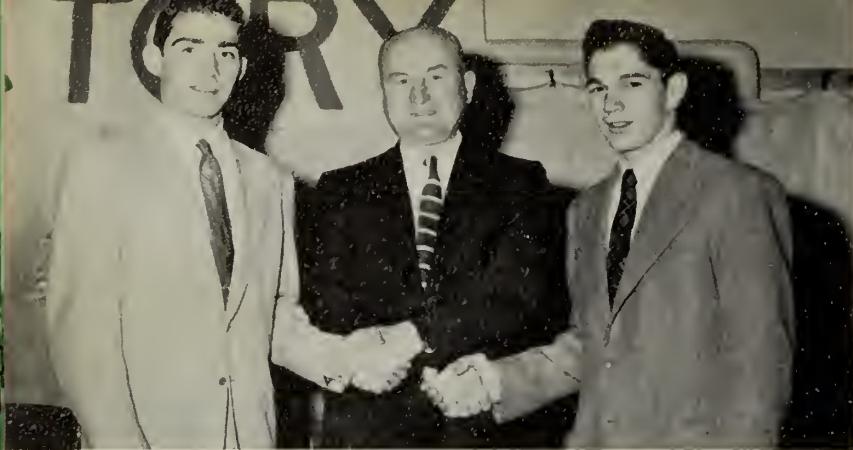

Long, Lavin, Dunn, Richards, Bushey, Dawson, Lavallee, Carey, Coach Bob Jachovitz and Coach Bill McMahon. Third row: Annesi, Romani, Murphy, Bernard, Pasquantonio, Otenti, Burnand, Lynch, De Angelis, Lilley, and Merloni.

The Flyers' victory, 33-6, over Milton was due to the beautiful running of Bob Burnand, the team's fleet-footed halfback, combined with nice line play by Del Prete, Snow, Prince and Dunn. The teamwork proved too much for Milton as Murphy, Sullivan, Levy, Nate and Richards scored the touchdowns.

The game against Needham was certainly a team triumph as Natoli scored the first T.D. late in the first half to tie the game 6-6. Zichella scored from the 13-yard line in the third quarter and Lynch kicked the extra point. Needham hit paydirt in the fourth quarter, but co-captain Don Prince stopped the try for the extra point as the Flyers emerged victoriously 13-12. This game was bitterly fought and the results of the grueling contest were evident as the boys dropped their next two games, one to Wellesley 20-13, and the other to Braintree 13-7 before the traditional Thanksgiving Day game with Natick.

The big game of the year was played before a record crowd of about 9,500 spectators. The game was a battle between two evenly matched teams, but Natick, with a few favorable breaks, pulled out the winner. Natoli and Levy scored the lone Flyer touchdowns.

This team will long be remembered for its tremendous spirit and desire to win. It is one of which we are very proud.

The Framingham Flyers of the '56-'57 season made up a team, truly unique in many respects. Predictions had it that the Flyers were out of the Tourney this year, since Coach Bill Summers was building a team with few regulars returning. Despite this, the Flyers netted 10 wins and suffered only four losses; the results placed our team second in the Bay State League. The bid to the Tech Tourney, an honor richly deserved, was the reward for pure fight, hustle, great shooting, and terrific team play. Let's not omit the coach's untiring drilling!

Coach Summer's "great bunch of men," who made the success of the team possible, will not soon be forgotten. A special mention is deserved by Captain Pete Sullivan for the great job he did all season. A word of praise goes to the seniors DeCenzo, Ryder, Moore, Burnand, and Otenti, who will leave vacancies in the ranks. Since Verra, Collins, Lilley, McCann, Rendell, Richards, and Sleczkowski have had Garden experience, the outlook for the next season is promising. The J.V.s under Coach Novak's tutelage have some promising stars among the members.

Schuler scrapes.

The 1956-57 Framingham High School hockey team enjoyed a very interesting season by winning four games, losing four, and evening two with a tie. Although the team finished a respectable fourth, the boys gave evidence of playing championship hockey on any given night, and as proof, the Flyers held victories over Needham, Watertown, Waltham, and Wellesley.

With the new marking system our girls have taken a more active part in sports. In gym classes, under the direction of Miss Verna Moberg, the girls are shown the skills necessary for competence in soccer, volleyball, basketball, softball and tennis.

Stunts and tumbling and apparatus work are included in an ever improving program.

SHOPPING FOR A JOB?

CHECK WHAT YOU WANT:

- ☐ Good starting salary with regular raises
- ☐ Pleasant work with other girls and young men
- ☐ Prestige of a responsible job with a well-known and respected company

If your list shows three checks, then you should check into what the Telephone Company has to offer you. Smart girls are doing it now, before they graduate from high school. Come in and see our employment interviewer soon. You'll enjoy talking with her.

Act now, and you can say with pride, "I'm all set! I'm going to work with the Telephone Company!"

See the Guidance Counselor at your school, and talk first with her about when and where to apply.
